Barnardo's eLearning: New user account

Service Desk (via Barnardo's)

To: ● Owen Funnell

Hi Owen Funnell,

A new eLearning account has been created for you and you have been issued with a temporary password. Your current login information is now:

username: owen.funnell@barnardos.org.uk

password: LNER462! (you will have to change your password when you login for the first time)

To start using your learning, login at <https://barnardos.clcmoodle.org>

If you are a new starter you are required to undertake a series of mandatory eLearning courses within your first two weeks. The mandatory modules can be found by clicking the Required Learning and Refreshers link in the Quicklinks panel and are a requirement of your probationary period.

These courses will equip you to perform your daily tasks in a safe manner, and ensure policy and legal requirements are met. Your manager is aware of these requirements and will be ensuring you can complete this.

Barnardo's is proud of its learning and development opportunities and hope that you will find these courses beneficial and enjoyable.

Best Wishes
